PEACE CAUSE TROUBLE AT PEACE CONFERENCE

Said To Have Threatened War On China If Secret Treaties Are Published To World.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 11—Japan's attitude toward China in the peace conference is causing grave apprehension. According to official diplomatic information reaching here, Japan has virtually threatened war if China publishes the secret treaties between the two countries and fails to carry out her agreement to make Japan the successor to Germany in all rights, property and concessions held by Germany at the outbreak of the European war.

China is relying on the peace conference where her delegates are said to have made an excellent impression and is seeking the support of the United States and Great Britain, although the Chinese foreign minister at Peking is quoted pessimistically in this report.

Meanwhile the Chinese delegates to the peace conference assert copies of the secret treaties were stolen from their baggage while they were en route to Paris. State Department officials today declined to comment on the situation.

Japan Wants Hun Islands

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Feb. 11—Bulletin—Japan has indicated her intention to hold the Marshall and Caroline Islands, which she took from Germany during the war and insists upon execution of her agreement last September with China regarding Shantung, according to a formal statement issued here. It is considered probable, however, that these matters will delay the Society of Nations project.

Ought To Have Shot, Anyway

(By Associated Press)
New York, Feb. 11—Shouting "to hell with America," and cheering for Bolsheviks, the red flag and the W. W., 54 alien born persons were taken on a boat guarded by soldiers, taken to Ellis Island for deportation, arriving on a special train during the night from the west. After they were attacked a policeman, soldiers were called and instructed to shoot to kill if necessary.

Major Leaming Wants Blue Grass League Again

(From Lexington Leader)
A call has been issued by "Major" Frank C. Leaming to all interested in reviving the Blue Grass Base Ball League, to meet in the near future, on a date to be fixed for the purpose of discussing ways and means for re-establishing base ball in Central Kentucky.

The league will, if organized, include Winchester, Paris, Richmond, Georgetown, Frankfort and Lexington between which cities easy transportation facilities are to be had.

The league, according to Major Leaming's plan, is to be made up of teams composed exclusively of players from the various towns above mentioned, and it is believed that enough interest in the game will be taken by the citizens of this community to revive the sport and place it on a higher plane than ever.

BASKET BALL.

JETT SPEAKS HERE FRIDAY

Much interest is being manifested in the address which Curt Jett will deliver in connection with the laity lecture course at the Methodist church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Big audiences have heard him speak wherever he has appeared, and the same will undoubtedly obtain here. He is at present taking a ministerial course at Asbury College, Wilmore.

Hauk's Sunshine Girls Score A Hit Monday

The patrons of the Opera House last evening were highly and pleasingly entertained by Arthur Hauk's Sunshine Girls Company in their presentation of "Tattle Dollie Dimples." The house was well filled and from the hearty applause to each number convinced the troupe that their stunts were meeting with satisfaction. Especial mention is due to the beautiful music rendered by the Four Musical Kings, who displayed much talent on string instruments. The little sourette who portrayed the part of Dollie, was as winsome and fascinating as ever played at the local theatre. The young ladies who made up the chorus were good looking and far above the average chorus girls. In fact, the whole company, including the comedian, impressed one as being ladies and gentlemen, and with an entire change of program tonight, the house will be packed to its capacity.

Predicts National Disaster If R. R. Wages Are Lowered

(By Associated Press)
Washington Feb. 11—Any disposition of the railroad problem that would lower wages would threaten a national disaster, said A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, today before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee. "If there is any unwise effort to reduce the income of the wage earner," he declared, "it will strengthen the spirit of discontent that will shake, if not destroy, the social structure. The spirit that would arise, should the railroad employees be dissatisfied, would communicate itself to such a large body of the population," Garretson said, "that the country would be brought to the verge of industrial rebellion."

To Save New Navy Bill

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 11—To save the three-year naval building program from defeat through a parliamentary coup, the House Rules Committee today ordered a rule reported making legislation authorizing the construction of 10 battleships and 10 scout cruisers, in order for House consideration as part of the $720,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

Killing In Lancaster

James Grimes, 33 years old, who resides five miles east of Lancaster, was shot and instantly killed yesterday, and his uncle, Ben Grimes, 60 years old, was arrested soon afterward. The motive for the crime is not known. Witnesses of the tragedy which took place in a boarding house in Lancaster, say no words were spoken by either man. Grimes is survived by his widow and five young children.

Bolsheviki Sold Out Russia

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 11—Investigation of lawless propaganda, I. W. W. activities, and other sources of disorder in the United States began before the Senate subcommittee today. The first witness was William Huntington, former commercial attaché of the American embassy in Petrograd. Describing conditions in Russia, he said Bolshevik agitators took German money to further their own propaganda and thus broke down the morale of the Russian soldiers. He said "They were little better crooks than the Germans who used them as tools."

OWEN HISLE WON CROIX DE GUERRE

Council of Defense Gives First Information of Exact Honor Won By Madison County Boy In Army

The name of Owen W. Hisle, of Madison county, as having won the French Croix de Guerre for bravery, is given in a list of Kentuckians who won distinction on the battle fields of France, just made public by the State Council of National Defense. It was reported that he was cited for bravery, but this information from the Council of Defense is to the effect that he won the much coveted croix de guerre.

Mrs. Susan Dudley Goes To Her Reward

Many friends and loved ones were shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Susan Dudley, which occurred at her home on Water street, near Lancaster avenue, this morning. She had been ill but a short time, and it was not realized that the end was near. However, this good woman was ready when the call came. For long years she had been a faithful and devoted member of the Baptist church. She lived her religion and was ready for the call when her Master summoned her to come up higher.

Mrs. Dudley was 77 years of age and was the widow of the late Ambrose Dudley. She is survived by four children, Gordon Dudley, of Shelby, N. C., Herndon Dudley, of Lancaster, Miss Bessie Dudley, of this city, and Charles Dudley, of this city. A sister, Mrs. W. O. Church, also survives. The deceased was practically a mother to her grandchildren, Mrs. Canway, of Torrington, Wyoming, and Gordon Doty, of Camp Lee, Va., and she reared them in the way they should go. Hers was a noble life, unselfishly devoted to others, and rich will be the reward that shall be hers. Many devoted friends will extend to the bereaved ones their condolence and sympathy in the hour of their sorrow. Funeral arrangements had not been made at the time the Daily Register's report closed today.

Judge G. E. Lilly, of Lexington, is over for several days this week.

BOWMANS SELL THEIR BIG LUMBER BUSINESS

Wm. C. Smith, Popular Young Banker At Head of New Company, Which Buys Properties Here.

Another big business deal was consummated in Richmond this week, when a group of men composed of Wm. C. Smith, of Richmond, Earl W. Savage, C. E. Wheeler, and D. E. A corporation has been organized which will be known as the Savage-Smith Lumber and Coal Company. Mr. Savage will come here and Mr. Smith will be actively engaged in charge of the business.

Plans are under way, it is understood, to enlarge and extend the business, to take care of any needs that may be found in the lines it will carry. The addition of Mr. Smith to any firm will mean that its policy will be progressive, energetic and up-to-date in every respect. He has been teller at the State Bank & Trust Company for a number of years and it is doubtful if there is a more popular or more highly esteemed young business man in this section of the state. His partners are all said to be wide-awake and hustling business men and the combination will be one that will be hard to beat anywhere. With progressive methods, advertising and establishment of a business upon forward-looking principles, their friends believe that they have an exceptional bright future before them.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before."

I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape.

I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."

Theodore's Black-Draught has for many years been found of great value to the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Easy to take, gentle and reliable in its action, leaving no bad after-effects, it has won the praise of thousands of people who have used it.

Helm To Leave Lincoln?

The Stanford Interior Journal said last week: Word comes from Columbus, Miss., that Congressman Harvey Helm has bought a large boundary of land near that city and that he will very likely locate there after his present term of office expires. Surely he would not do so foolish a thing as leave God's country for the Mississippi swamps. There must be a mistake about it. We hope there is, anyway.

Mr. S. K. Dudderar, one of the good citizens of Gilbert Creek section, who left to take chances in Madison county, is back getting his crop of some 6,000 pounds ready for market. He will sell it on the Richmond breakers. Stanford Journal. Mr. Dudderar assured of top prices here and showed wisdom in bringing his wool over here to sell, just as he did when he moved his estimable family here. It would pay a lot of other good men like Mr. Dudderar to "take a chance" on coming to Madison.

The commissary of the Federal Corporation at Cary, near Pineville, burned Sunday. The loss is placed at $25,000; with insurance of $10,000. Willis Viley, 71 years old, died in Lexington, after a brief illness. He was formerly a leader in democratic politics. He was a son of former Mayor John Viley, and his great uncle was Richard M. Johnson, pioneer Indian fighter, who killed the Indian Chief Tecumseh.

"DADDY'S HOG,"

(For the Daily Register by the colored poet-laureate, Henry A. Laine.)

A sick little pig by the warm kitchen stove,
In a basket, made snug for him, lay While small, busy Willie, just outside the door,
With his jack-knife sat whittling away.
On triggers for "dead-falls" to catch skunks and coons,
For their fur, while the prices were high.
While fat "Gen'l Pershing," his big brindle dog,
Lay quietly dozing, near by.

From the barn came his father to look at the pig;

"He's pretty bad off, it is true;
But warm milk and care, Willie, might save him yet;
If you save him, I'll give him to you."

A funny smile flickered around Willie's mouth,
As he patted his dog on the head.
The dog stretched and yawned, whipped the ground with his tail,
Like he understood what Willie said:

"Yes, dad told me that same old tale
once before.

He said 't'other sick pig was mine.
I nussed 'im, 'n' fed 'im, on warm milk
'n' corn."

Till 'e got well, 'n' grewed big, 'n' fine.

'N' dad up 'n' sold 'im, 'n' kep' ev'ry cent!

'N' sed hog 'n' me, too, by right, Wus his'n; but this time I'll set up with him!

He's doctor this time; it's his fight."

An hour or two, later, his dad came again.

And found the sick pig "dead and gone."

"Too bad, son, you've lost him." The boy said, "Uh huh;"

And whittling his triggers kept on.
'Twas bad for the pig; but you can't blame the lad.

Let parents show children "fair play."

"Boy's pig, daddy's hog," back yonder might "go."

But not with the boys of today.

Introduction.

It affords us pleasure to introduce to the people our Mr. Asher, who comes to take a position in our shop.
Mr. Asher is a son of Col. A. J. Asher, one of the largest land owners in Kentucky, and one of its wealthiest citizens. Our Mr. Asher has had 15 years experience in the best automobile shops of the country and is a first class all round man. He comes recently from the Pierce-Arrow Automobile Company shops where he held responsible positions. He was for several years in the Ford shops and knows the Ford car as well as any man in Kentucky. He knows the intricate and delicate mechanism of any cars and is a workman of fine attainments and large experience. With Mr. Asher added to our force, we feel sure that our shop is fully equipped to handle any difficulty that may arise.

We are selecting our men with great care, having only one end in view and that is to render a full dollar's worth of service for each dollar paid us.

Next week we will have another announcement to make, one that the people will be particularly interested

ZARING'S MILL

For Constipation! Physic Purge or Laxative?

Everyone now and then becomes constipated, and millions are chronically in that condition. The perplexing question arises—what to use.

Purgatives and cathartics are drastic and usually cause a reaction. Saline waters are rapid in action but do no more than empty the bowels.

Just as certain an effect, and certainly a much more pleasant one, can be obtained by the use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It acts gently, without griping. It is an especially ideal medicine for children, women, old people and others who find purges too powerful.

Only a teaspoonful is required, and by morning the movement is free and complete. A bottle in the house is insurance for the whole family against constipation, indigestion, headaches, flatulency and other digestive ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrifice, profit and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 36 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

FREE SAMPLES.—If you have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin send for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 468 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. If there are babies at home, ask for a copy of Dr. Caldwell's book, "The Care of Baby."

WILHELM, COUNT BENTINCK

Count Bentinck, who has given his friend, the kaiser, shelter in his castle at Amerongen, Holland, is also baron of Aldenburg and count of Waldeck-Limburch, and a hereditary member of the first chamber of Wuertemberg.

at home who made their existence possible. Personally, I shall never forget the treatment I received from the Red Cross while being evacuated from the line to a base hospital. We are now located in Kyllburg, Germany, a famous summer resort for the Germans. We are being wonderfully received by the inhabitants and they seem exceedingly glad we are here. That is, at least their outward appearance, while inwardly it may be only tolerance. Again, I assure you of my great appreciation for the kind Xmas remembrance and trusting we very soon shall be sailing toward old Kentucky, which truly is the garden spot of the world. I am sincerely, etc., Wagoner Vester Hisle, of Co. B, Headquarters Battalion, wrote "Wishing the Red Cross workers of Richmond, Ky., a Merry Xmas and a happy New Year."

Lieut. G. Philip Bush, of the 806th Pioneer Infantry, sent some postcards from France, and wrote: "Kindly accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for your kind remembrance, expressed in the New Year's card just received. The Red Cross branch of our great army has certainly proved its merits and necessity. All the grand cathedrals in the border towns are entirely destroyed. There is more beauty and grandeur found in the interior of these churches than one can realize. This beautiful city—Nancy—has suffered much from the hands of the cruel boche. The great cathedral shown in this picture was partially covered with sandbags. It was built by Joan of Arc's father."

A card from John D. White, from LeMans, France, said: "To the Red Cross people of Richmond. Here is a

Red Cross Receives Letters of Thanks From Over There

The Madison County Chapter of the Red Cross has received a number of interesting letters from "our boys" on the other side, many of whom are now with the American Army of Occupation in Germany. A number of the letters were to thank the local ladies for their Christmas packages. A few of the letters are given below and will be of interest to the friends of the young men at home here:

Corporal Franklin K. Fass wrote from St. Nazaire, France: "I received today from the Madison county chapter a Xmas parcel, which I appreciate very much, and not having sent a ship for a Xmas parcel, it was a great surprise to me to receive one from Richmond, and more so from the Red Cross. Allow me to thank the Red Cross once more and hoping to back in dear old U. S. A., very soon, I beg to remain, etc."

Quartermaster Sergeant Jack S. Best, of the Marine Band, wrote from Altwied, Germany: "It was indeed a pleasure to receive the Christmas postal from you today and especially to know you would be thinking of me in this far away land on Christmas day. It has been a difficult problem for us to write interesting letters to friends in the U. S. A. who have been backing us up in such a splendid way; all this on account of the censorship rules. Now that these latter have been practically rescinded, we are at liberty to write of our past adventures, line of march in this army of occupation, probable future events, in fact the veil of mystery which has so far concealed our exploits, is now thrown aside. Now, although I know how eagerly you will wish to know of all our adventures, still I find that in order to tell you all it would be a gigantic task so as a happy medium I am enclosing copy of a recent order, which tells a graphic story, omitting the accompanying hardships. The many details, grave and amusing, connected with this I shall be glad to tell you about, should you have the time when I meet you all in the states which I fervently hope will be soon. Meanwhile, I remain,"

Lieut. Harry D. Rice wrote this: My Dear Ladies—Your kind Xmas greetings reached me on the appropriate day of Christmas eve. I can assure you all I most deeply appreciated the thoughts and spirit that were embodied in this little card. I can only begin to tell you how much the men over here have appreciated the work the Red Cross has so wonderfully carried out. The men and women who have represented the organization over here have been a great help to the cause which cause it was. Good men and women
